

NOTICE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CUSTODY

Vessel with HIN WAZ3090D1978, formerly known as Oyster Queen

In accordance with Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 79.100, the unnamed vessel, formerly known as Oyster Queen, with Hull Identification Number WAZ3090D1978, has been declared abandoned as that term is defined in RCW 79.100.010.

Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR), acting as an authorized public entity with the authority granted in RCW 79.100, intends to take formal and full custody of the above-named vessel on November 30, 2009. Once DNR obtains custody of the vessel, it is authorized to use or dispose of it in any appropriate and environmentally sound manner as provided in RCW 79.100, without further notice to the owner. In order for the owner to retain custody of the vessel, before November 30, 2009, the owner must remove the vessel to an appropriate upland storage or disposal location.

In order to challenge DNR's decision to take custody of the vessel, the owner must file a written request for a hearing with DNR's Aquatic Resources Division at 1111 Washington Street SE, PO Box 47027, Olympia WA 98504-7027. The written request can be submitted immediately after receipt of this notice, but cannot be filed any later than the twentieth day after the custody date. The right to a hearing is deemed waived if a request is submitted late, and the owner is liable for any costs owed to DNR.

The costs the owner may be liable for include, but are not limited to, costs incurred by DNR while exercising the authority granted in RCW 79.100.030, all administrative costs incurred by DNR during the procedure set forth in RCW 79.100.040 and RCW 79.100.050, removal and disposal costs, and costs associated with environmental damages directly or indirectly caused by the vessel. In the event of litigation, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Also, the owner may be guilty of a misdemeanor for allowing a vessel to become abandoned or derelict on aquatic lands per RCW 79.100.110.

DNR reserves the right to pursue any other remedies available under law.
